

Kaleidoscope Hosts a Haunty Halloween with Jack & Sally on October 26

Young ghosts and goblins are invited to Kaleidoscope in Mission Viejo for a Haunty Halloween with Jack and Sally on Saturday, October 26 from 3 to 6pm. The afternoon of free family fun will take place in Kaleidoscope's courtyard with balloon art, face painting, seasonal crafts, a DJ who will spin music, and dance performances by costumed characters. Youngsters will also enjoy trick or treating throughout the center, with the first 300 costumed kids receiving free trick or treat bags.

Families won't want to miss snapping their photos throughout the center, including in front of Kaleidoscope's colorful Never Lose Your Wonder mural in the main courtyard, the Be You mural on the upper level, and next to festive Halloween displays with colorful oversized pumpkins, life-size BOO letters, and seasonal signs set among giant fall flowers.

Guests who want to get social can take selfies or family photos in front of any of the murals or seasonal displays, and tag @GoKaleidoscope and use hashtag #KSHalloween, to be entered to win a prize from Kaleidoscope tenants. There will also be an opportunity drawing with prizes of family fun available at check-in.

Parents will also enjoy small bites and beverage samples from Kaleidoscope restaurants, along with special discounts available that day from select retailers.
